Contributions to the JOHN LIU SENATE ELECTION COMMITTEE are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. The maximum permissible contribution for individuals, partnerships, sole proprietorships, PACs and LLCs is $19,300 ($7,500 for the primary election and $11,800 for the general election). Partnerships that make contributions exceeding $2,500 will be required to specifically identify the partners responsible for the contribution, and that amount will be counted against each partner's individual contribution limit. Total contributions from a corporation may not exceed $5,000 per calendar year to all New York state and local political committees. All contributors must be US citizens or permanent resident aliens (green card holders). All individuals and entities are strictly prohibited from reimbursing another person or entity for his or her or its contribution.
